

the Forest of Dean and Wye Valley Review

Established 1982

Incorporating The Ross Trading Post and The Forest Weekly News

25p where sold

Audited circulation 44,094 • Vol 31 No 14 week-ending 8th April 2011

www.forest-and-wye-today.co.uk

An arresting game on the cards...

•You're nabbed, my lad! Simon Evans is about to be 'collared' by PCSO for Drybrook area Sean Clarke (left) and PC Glen Morse, watched by Hale and Co MD Les Hale.

'ALLO, 'allo, 'allo! What's going on here then? Looks like a fair cop as Simon Evans of Hale and Co, the Drybrook builders merchants, is asked to come along quietly...

He won't of course, because he's busy arranging a titanic football clash between a Hales team of fairly regular players and the Forest police force – all in aid of the Help for Heroes forces charity.

It all comes to a head on April 24 at Cinderford FC's Causeway football ground. After a 2pm kick off a super day of family fun is promised, with half-time fun, and drinks, a barbecue and a big auction to follow plus live music from up-and-coming Forest band Pandemick.

Entry is just £2 for adults with under-15s free, and all money taken will go to the charity.

"I can guarantee everyone will have a good time," said Simon.

How did he rate the opposition? "I think they're pretty good and we've played them a few times. But I don't think they've ever beaten us."

So that will be a trophy win then?

"It's got our name on it – Hales," said Simon.